Proposed add in FASAL 5 PERBERHENTIAN DAN PEMECATAN AHLI, a new Clause, (3)

(3) The Seating Committee shall have the authority, by unanimous agreement of all its members who attended the AGM/EGM, to expel any MBSS member who, upon receipt and verification of substantiated complaints, is proven to have engaged in conduct that materially tarnishes the reputation of the Society, whether locally or internationally. Such conduct includes, but is not limited to:

- a. Personal behavior or attitude that jeopardizes the good image of the Society;
- b. Acts of incitement, including purported efforts to boycott Society activities or to influence other members not to participate in such activities;
- c. Defamation or disparagement of the Society's name, including the publication, posting, or dissemination of baseless or false statements—whether verbal, written, or on social media—that damage the Society's reputation.

Proposed add in FASAL 6 SUMBER KEWANGAN, a new Clause, (3)

(3) Regular membership in the Malaysia Bonsai & Suiseki Society (MBSS) is established through a one-time lifetime fee of RM300, conferring all rights and privileges under the Society's Constitution.

A new Trader Membership segment is introduced for Regular Members, requiring RM150 annually on top of the lifetime fee of RM300 or, alternatively, the donation of a bonsai tree or suiseki item of equivalent value. Trader Members are authorized to sell bonsai, suiseki, or related items during MBSS-hosted exhibitions and roadshows, and automatically qualify to participate in trading activities through the MBSS booth.
